Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This coming Tuesday is the feast day of Sts Peter and Paul. Since they are the patrons of this Parish we will remember and honour them at all Masses this weekend. In the Piazza San Pietro in Rome, the statues of Sts Peter and Paul flank the square, symbolizing the complementary nature of these saints' lives and mission. Paul is the one who comes to faith through a dramatic conversion, falling to the ground on his way to Damascus to persecute Christians. Peter comes to faith slowly and steadily, often taking two steps forward and one back. He denies the Lord three times but in resurrection light confesses faith three times. As regards their mission, Peter is the Apostle to the Jewish Christians, while Paul is the Apostle to Gentile Christians.

Today we honour them since we carry their name and as they "keep a watchful eye over us" we are inspired by their faith and humanity.

The Archdiocese continues the tradition of ordaining priests on this feast so I ask you to keep in your prayers Francis Fernandes, Jack Ho and William Aupito Iuliano who will be ordained at St Stephen's on Tuesday evening.

Last Sunday's Refugee event was both inspiring and very informative. I am very grateful to everyone who made the event possible. The larger than expected numbers who attended is evidence that the lives of refugees are indeed a concern to many people and we are prepared to express that concern in practical ways that support them in their need. Thank you!

God bless,
Fr Kevin

REFUGEE WEEK - This week, as you know, the Church has been focussing on the plight of refugees and those seeking asylum. The article accompanying the Newsletter this week is the story of Bishop Vincent Long, Bishop of Parramatta, and himself a refugee from Vietnam. Australia welcomed the Vietnamese 'boat people' and what a contribution to our society the Vietnamese community, many from similar backgrounds as Bishop Long, has made! His story is like that of so many who are now being excluded as a result of Australia's harsh border restrictions. Like the Biloela family, those in detention are in danger of being sent back anytime to their country of origin regardless of the dangers they may face there. This is an important time now for us to step-up. As a result of people-power, we have seen the Immigration Minister bow (albeit just slightly) to public pressure and provide a 3-month bridging visa to the Biloela family. With a Federal Election gazetted for early next year, we need to keep continue to be a voice so that, as a nation, we will be able to sleep better at night knowing that we have welcomed 'those who've come across the sea' (words from Verse 2 of the Australian National Anthem).

THANK YOU FOR 'BEING THE VOICE' - Last Sunday's social justice event "Be the Voice", organised by our parish's Social Justice Committee, was attended by over 40 people and proved to be an outstanding success. Over half of those who attended were from neighbouring parishes, so it was encouraging to have such support both from our own parishioners but from outside as well. Audience members were updated on the SUPP program, watched a video of our co-partner organisation in Swift Current, Canada, listened to an extraordinary talk by Year 12 student Isabella Hollewand, and gained with deep insights into the challenges faced by refugees and those seeking asylum from an expert panel in an enlightening Q&A session. Our next step is to continue to encourage people to donate to our SUPP program (through the parish office) and also to begin to lobby Local, State and Federal politicians to change the Government's draconian policies with regard to refugees. If you would like to know how you can be a part of this but were unable to attend last Sunday, please let the parish office know and we can add you to our email contact list.

SING TO THE MOUNTAINS

*Sing to the mountains, sing to the sea.
Raise your voices, lift your hearts.
This is the day the Lord has made.
Let all the earth rejoice.*

I will give thanks to you, my Lord.
You have answered my plea.
You have saved my soul from death.
You are my strength and my song.

Holy, holy, holy, Lord.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

This is the day that the Lord has made.
Let us be glad and rejoice.
He has turned all death to life.
Sing of the glory of God.

COMMUNION HYMN

A TRUSTING PSALM

CHORUS

*Lord, let your mercy be on us
As we place our trust in you.*

The word of the Lord is faithfulness and love.
His love can never be measured.
His beauty is like nothing we have ever seen,
So let us place our trust in him.

The word of the Lord means a patient, gentle God.
His love can never grow weary.
His mercy is as though our sins have never been,
If we can place our trust in him.

The word of the Lord is fire burning strong.
His love can never grow weary.
He will seek and save the lost until we all return,
So let us place our trust in him.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

(Sat 6pm, Sunday 5.30pm)

PARISH HYMN OF PETER AND PAUL

We praise you for Saint Peter; we praise you for Saint Paul
They taught both Jew and Gentile that Christ is all in all.
To cross and sword they yielded and saw the kingdom come
O God, your two apostles won life through martyrdom.

By all your saints still striving, for all your saints at rest,
Your holy name, O Jesus, forever more be blessed.
You rose our king victorious, that we might wear the crown
And ever shine in splendour reflected from your throne.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

(Sunday 8am)

GIVE THANKS FOR CHRIST'S APOSTLES

Give thanks for Christ's apostles, defenders of his word,
Who wield throughout the ages the Spirit's mighty sword.
They speak God's word of healing,
unyielding hearts to move;
And those by strife divided are reconciled with love.

They keep the gates of heaven, have pow'r to loose from sin
The bound, set free to meet him, with Christ may enter in.
To Father, Son and Spirit, for these great saints give praise;
They guide earth's pilgrim children on faith's uncharted ways.
